

What do these band names reference?

BRITISH SEA POWER

FRANZ FERDINAND

Sex Pistols

WARSAW

Lady Antebellum

Dead Kennedys

THE BLACK MADONNA

Anita White

JOY DIVISION

THE DECEMBERISTS

Viet Cong

Preoccupations

THE DIXIE CHICKS

Match the vocabulary and definitions.

wry (adj.)	●	<input type="radio"/>	to change one's position
taste (n.)	●	<input type="radio"/>	unpleasant
shift (v.)	●	<input type="radio"/>	another name for a recorded song
provocative (adj.)	●	<input type="radio"/>	clear and definite; obvious
track (n.)	●	<input type="radio"/>	the act or fact of mentioning
reference (v.)	●	<input type="radio"/>	a personal liking
in the wake of	●	<input type="radio"/>	likely or serving to provoke
captor (n.)	●	<input type="radio"/>	one who takes or holds someone or something captive
unequivocal (adj.)	●	<input type="radio"/>	an exceptionally evil, ruthless, or cruel act
distasteful (adj.)	●	<input type="radio"/>	a sarcastic and sometimes unkind sense of humor atrocious (n.)	●	<input type="radio"/>	following; directly after

Create band names referencing these historic events.

The Cold War	The USSR
The Fall of the Berlin Wall	World War II
PRL	The Irish Potato Famine
The War in Yugoslavia	Women's Suffrage
The Hindenburg	The death of Lech and Maria Kaczyński

Do you agree or disagree with these statements?

It is an artist's job to provoke people.

People often pretend to be offended.

No political or historic event should be unequivocally off limits to comedy.

Making fun of historic atrocities should not be allowed.

There is no such thing as political art.

All cultures find the same things distasteful.

Art should not have to change in the wake of protest or political change.

A state should get rid of all references to a past it is ashamed of.

What an artist does as a person does not affect how I feel about their art.